

NITEP Spring Visiting Elder Series

We are pleased to once again host Visiting Elders for NITEP students! We will be discussing themes in Indigenous Education of Indigenizing the classroom, our roles and place in Indigenous Education, community and elder engagement in education, and more!

March 18, 12:45 - 2:00 PM PDT: Elder Larry Grant

Elder Larry Grant, Musqueam Elder, was born and raised in Musqueam traditional territory by a traditional hə́ńqəmińə́m speaking Musqueam family. After 4 decades as a tradesman, Larry enrolled in the First Nations Languages Program, which awoke his memory of the embedded value that the hə́ńqəmińə́m language has to self-identity, kinship, culture, territory, and history prior to European contact. He is presently assisting in revitalizing hə́ńqəmińə́m in the Musqueam Language and Culture Department, and co-teaching the introductory hə́ńqəmińə́m course through UBC.

Larry is the Elder-in-Residence at UBC's First Nations House of Learning. He is a Faculty Fellow at St. John's College, and the inaugural Honorary Life Fellow for Green College. In 2010, he received the Alumni Award of Distinction from Vancouver Community College, and in 2014, he became an Honorary Graduate from the Indigenous Teacher Education Program (NITEP) at UBC.
